From the Study Psalm 22:22 (Complete Jewish Bible)

16 Dogs are all around me,
a pack of villains closes in on me
like a lion [at] my hands and feet.

17 I can count every one of my bones,
while they gaze at me and gloat.

18 They divide my garments among themselves;
for my clothing they throw dice.

Psalm 22 is a very graphic description of someone suffering torture, but more than that, it is a description of the crucifixion of Jesus; many of you will already know this, however, I want to emphasise that this description was penned some 900 and more years before the birth of Jesus.

The Old Testament is so valuable to us as Christian believers because without it it's like looking at the roof of a house without seeing any support walls or foundations. People often ask for proof of the events of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, but history already records these truths - history doesn't doubt them; yet the proof of God's involvement is in the prophecies of the Old Testament being fulfilled in Jesus, prophecies just like this one in Psalm 22.

Jesus said He did not come to do away with the law - Old Testament - (Matthew 5:17) , but He came to fulfil it - to bring it to completion, which He did on the cross when 'he said, "It is accomplished!"' (John 19:30)

Be blessed and be a blessing this month in Jesus name, Pastor Phil.

Lord Jesus, please help us to be faithful to You in all things.
Thank You Lord, Amen.

ECO-CHURCH

Habits and patterns!

We're now in the second month of 2025 and many people will probably already be wavering or possibly stopped altogether with any new year's resolutions they made. Whether that was to eat more healthily, go to the gym more often, look after their skin better, de-clutter the house, learn a new skill or whatever else.

How about trying to incorporate some of these ideas below into your daily routines as you make your way through 2025? Just take a look and see which one(s) might be the easiest for you to achieve depending on your own circumstances:

- Spend more time in nature
- Always use reusable bags when shopping
- Read up on environmental issues from reputable sources
- Significantly reduce or eliminate single use plastic
- Use less water
- Pray regularly for those in poorer countries suffering the worst of climate effects
- Prevent food waste as much as possible
- Try using more eco -friendly cleaning products
- Explore the company ethics where your money is invested
- Go paperless where you can
- Try 'meat free Mondays' or something similar
- Buy less and/ or buy from sustainable brands

Along the way, if you have any advice, tips or suggestions for others to learn from or try out, then let us know and we can put them in the church magazine or on the Eco notice board so that knowledge is shared! Some of the above need more research than others, but they all need us to be mindful of our decision making. Thanks!

Delyth Higgins

Poets' Corner

*I feel the arms of God around me, as I lay on my bed at night.
Asleep, I feel the Angel's touch-
I'm surrounded and held tight.
I don't know why it is,
that God should love me so,
that he would send His only Son,
to hang there on Death-row.
He guards me night and day,
always bringing love and hope.
Somehow, I know I will survive,
for He will help me cope.
As a father has compassion on his child,
so my Lord has compassion on me.
I know I can count on Him-
There is nowhere from His love I want to flee.*

Bra Bank

We understand that it's not easy to find affordable underwear, so we're here to help.

Our Bra Bank collects unwanted bras, both new and old. We send them to places where underwear is very expensive, so they can be reused.

Even if a bra is not suitable for wearing, we make sure it doesn't go to waste. We recycle the parts and donate the money to Breast Cancer research.

If you need a Bra Bank at your workplace or school, let us know.

You can also drop off your unwanted bras with us, and we'll take care of everything.
